Deutsche Bank successfully completes issuance of Additional Tier 1 capital instruments

Today Deutsche Bank AG (XETRA: DBKGn.DE / NYSE: DB) issued Additional Tier 1 capital instruments with a principal amount of 1.25 billion euros. The issuance will further strengthen Deutsche Bank's Tier 1 capital position.

The securities will bear a fixed coupon of 4.625%, payable annually, until 30 April 2028. The Bank can call the securities, subject to prior supervisory approval on each day between 30 October 2027 and 30 April 2028, thereafter on 30 April of each subsequent year. The applicable rate of interest will be reset at five year intervals starting on 30 April 2028 on the basis of the then prevailing 5 year Euro swap rate plus the initial credit spread of 4.747% per year.

The securities (ISIN DE000DL19VZ9) are expected to be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and traded on its regulated market.

The denominations of the securities are 200,000. Deutsche Bank AG acted as sole bookrunner for the offering.

With this transaction, Deutsche Bank raised over 9 billion euros in capital markets year-to-date completing 60% of its annual funding plan.

The securities of Deutsche Bank AG mentioned in this release have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act") and will be issued under Regulation S of the Securities Act only and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States absent registration under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration requirements.

This release contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts; they include statements about our beliefs and expectations and the assumptions underlying them. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections as they are currently available to the management of Deutsche Bank. Forward-looking statements therefore speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could therefore cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include the conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and elsewhere from which we derive a substantial portion of our revenues and in which we hold a substantial portion of our assets, the development of asset prices and market volatility, potential defaults of borrowers or trading counterparties, the implementation of our strategic initiatives, the reliability of our risk management policies, procedures and methods, and other risks referenced in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Such factors are described in detail in our SEC Form 20-F of 12 March 2021 under the heading "Risk Factors".
