Deutsche Bank fixes subscription price for new shares at EUR 22.50 per share

- Issue of 299.8 million new shares
- Subscription ratio of 18 : 5
- Gross proceeds of EUR 8.5 billion

Deutsche Bank AG (XETRA: DBKGn.DE / NYSE: DB) today fixed the subscription price for new shares issued as part of the Bank's capital increase against cash contributions at EUR 22.50 per share.

Deutsche Bank will issue a total of 299.8 million new registered no par value shares (common shares) in public offerings in Germany, the United Kingdom and in the United States, using authorized capital. This corresponds to a subscription ratio of 18 : 5, i.e. Deutsche Bank shareholders may acquire for every 18 existing shares 5 new shares at the subscription price during the subscription period which is expected to run from 6 June through 24 June 2014. The new shares will have full dividend entitlement from 1 January 2014. The gross proceeds from the offering, which is fully underwritten, will amount to EUR 6.75 billion.

As announced on 18 May 2014, shares with a value of EUR 1.75 billion were already placed with Paramount Services Holdings Ltd. prior to the rights offering. Paramount Services Holdings Ltd. has committed to exercise all of its subscription rights in the rights issue.

The rights offering follows the recent placement of new shares with Paramount Services Holdings Ltd. and the recently announced issuance of Additional Tier 1 capital with a nominal amount of approximately EUR 3.5 billion. Had these transactions been completed on 31 March 2014, Deutsche Bank's Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio on that date would have been 12.0% on a pro forma CRD4 fully-loaded basis rather than 9.5%. This increase follows significant strengthening of this ratio, which stood below 6% (estimated on a pro forma basis) in mid 2012, under Strategy 2015+. The pro forma CRD4 fully-loaded leverage ratio at the end of the first quarter 2014 would have been 3.4%, on the same basis, rather than 2.5%.

Jürgen Fitschen and Anshu Jain, Co-Chief Executive Officers, said: “This rights issue reinforces Deutsche Bank’s Strategy 2015+, which we reaffirm. We have taken decisive steps to protect Deutsche Bank against known capital challenges, sharpen our competitive edge, and accelerate investments in growth in all our business divisions.”

Trading in the subscription rights on the German stock exchanges is expected to take place from 6 June through 20 June 2014, and the rights are expected to be admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange from 6 June 2014 through 18 June 2014. Delivery of the new shares subscribed as part of the rights offering is expected to take place on or about 25 June 2014.

It is expected that the new shares will be included in the existing quotation of the Deutsche Bank shares on the German stock exchanges on or about 25 June 2014. The inclusion of the new shares in the existing listing on the New York Stock Exchange is expected at the same time.

Important notices

Forward-looking statements contain risks

This IR release contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts; they include statements about our beliefs and expectations. Any statement in this release that states our intentions, beliefs, expectations or predictions (and the assumptions underlying them) is a forward-looking statement. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections as they are currently available to the management of Deutsche Bank. Forward-looking statements therefore speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could therefore cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include the conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and elsewhere from which we derive a substantial portion of our trading revenues, potential defaults of borrowers or trading counterparties, the implementation of our strategic initiatives, the reliability of our risk management policies, procedures and methods, and other risks referenced in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Such factors are described in our SEC Form 20-F of March 20, 2014 on pages 11 through 29 under the heading “Risk Factors.” Copies of this document are readily available upon request or can be downloaded from www.db.com/ir. This release also contains non-IFRS financial measures.
